

Stellantis and federal and provincial governments make a historic auto investment in Windsor and Brampton, new Quebec Director is elected, Linda MacNeil and Lana Payne speak at May Day rallies, Ontario election begins with bogus budget, Unifor condemns pending Roe v Wade decision, raise Saskatchewan minimum wage, Unifor at World Social Forum, press freedom under attack plus register for the Moose Hide webinar.

 WHAT'S HOT

Premier Andrew Furey must stop ignoring Newfoundland and Labrador workers and abandon his "Big Reset" which will destroy

 TAKE ACTION

Unifor members can register online for a webinar about the popular Moose Hide campaign and standing up to jobs, reduce wages and cause a rise in inequality said Linda MacNeil, Atlantic Regional Director, at a May Day rally at the Confederation building in St. John's on Sunday.

violence against women and children.

WATCH VIDEO

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Historic $3.6 billion investments in Stellantis auto plants solidifies electric vehicle investments for Windsor and a long-awaited commitment to the future of the Brampton Assembly Plant.

READ MORE

Daniel Cloutier is elected as Quebec Director plus plenty more activities happened at the 16th Unifor Quebec Council in Trois-Rivières.

READ MORE

The Ontario election has officially begun! Election Day in Ontario is June 3. Get involved in Unifor's campaign today, and make your plan to vote.

READ MORE

Unifor is taking an active role at the World Social Forum, being held this year in Mexico where the union has been active for many years helping to improve the rights of working people.

READ MORE

Northern Pulp parent company Paper Excellence opts not to make special pension payment in BC Supreme Court filing, disappointing the union and Local 440 members.

READ MORE

Premier Ford's faux provincial budget, tabled last week in the Legislature, missed the mark for workers, forming a weak foundation to the Progressive Conservatives' election platform.

READ MORE

From St. John's to Windsor to Vancouver and even in Mexico, Unifor members united behind a worker's vision a better future on May Day.

READ MORE

Unifor celebrates an end to the discriminatory blood ban at CBS, calls for complete removal at Héma-Québec.

Journalism is under attack - literally and figuratively, and that makes freedom of the press more relevant and important today than it ever has been. Read Unifor's statement for World Press Freedom Day.

READ MORE

READ MORE

Unifor elected leadership issue a statement denouncing the impending reversal of the landmark US Supreme Court ruling Roe v. Wade. Read the full statement on the union's commitment to defending reproductive rights.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

The Forestry Council Executive Committee met in person for the first time in years to assess the outlook for Canada's forestry sector and prepare for Forestry Council ahead of Convention.

READ MORE

 IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

 RESOURCES

Today's struggles are tomorrow's victories!
Lana Payne, Unifor National Secretary-Treasurer laid out workers' goals for the future, and the Ontario provincial election in Toronto on May Day.

WATCH VIDEO

Unifor has updated its New Member Kits in English, French and Spanish.

READ MORE

Unifor

115 Gordon Baker Road, Toronto ON M2H 0A8
Toll-free: 1-800-268-5763 | communications@unifor.org

This email was sent to: cwilski@rogers.com

If you no longer wish to receive updates: UNSUBSCRIBE or MANAGE YOUR SUBSCRIPTIONS
FORWARD TO A FRIEND