

September 2, 2022

Members at GDI Services enter week two on the picket line at Durham College campuses. Quebec locals mobilize in support of Bell Technical Solution workers. MABE retirees mark anniversary of company bankruptcy. Loomis Express members across eight provinces reach tentative agreement. Register now for the upcoming Health & Safety Conference focusing on workplace mental health. Watch National President Lana Payne's inspiring Labour Day message.

WHAT'S HOT

TAKE ACTION

“We work our entire lives as trade union activists for the kind of moment we find ourselves in right now. A moment where we can build worker power,” says Unifor National President Lana Payne in her Labour Day message.

Join the Unifor National Health & Safety Conference, “Workplace Mental Health – Be Safe, Feel Safe,” September 30-October 2, 2022 at the Family Education Centre in Port Elgin. Deadline to register is September 9.

WATCH VIDEO

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Members at GDI Services, who provide cleaning services at Durham College campuses, fight for increased wages and benefits as they enter week two of strike action.

READ MORE

Quebec members rally in support of Bell Technical Solutions workers fighting the employer's outsourcing of work to contractors.

READ MORE

Unifor locals joined MABE retirees as they gathered in front of the old MABE plant in Montreal to mark the sad anniversary of their former employer's bankruptcy.

READ MORE

The stark drop in workers disqualified from Employment Insurance during COVID-19 shows that the pandemic EI measures should be renewed, says Unifor.

READ MORE

More than 1,500 Loomis Express members reached a national tentative agreement, avoiding strike action.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Members at Unifor Local 88 will make history later this year when they produce Canada's first commercial electric vehicles. Watch the CAMI story, a story of hope, renewal and solidarity in this co-production with Blue Green Canada.

READ MORE

RESOURCES

Unifor's National Education Department offers an extensive year-round labour education programme across the country, at our Family Education Centre in Port Elgin and online. Check out available programs.

READ MORE

Unifor

115 Gordon Baker Road, Toronto ON M2H 0A8
Toll-free: 1-800-268-5763 | communications@unifor.org