

Unifor members and allies rally to support striking Windsor Salt workers. Stellantis and the Canadian government reach a deal to continue EV battery plant construction. Talks between Nova Scotia nursing unions and employers stalled. Unifor releases statement on University of Waterloo campus stabbings. Order your National Day for Truth and Reconciliation orange shirts. Plus: Bargaining updates from Ornge paramedics, the Municipality of Calvin, Hudson Bay Railway, and Canadian Aviation Electronics Ltd.

 WHAT'S HOT

Over 2,000 hospital workers this week called on Thunder Bay Regional Health

 TAKE ACTION

September 30 is Orange Shirt Day, and Canada's National Day for Truth and Sciences Centre leadership to take a stand against the Doug Ford government's plan to privatize hospital services.

VIEW PHOTOS

Reconciliation. Order today to ensure your Unifor Orange Shirt Day t-shirts are delivered on time!

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor members from across Ontario, and as far as Nova Scotia traveled to Windsor, for a rally to express solidarity with striking Windsor Salt workers. The union showed the employer and its owners at Stone Canyon Industries that Unifor members on strike have the full support of Unifor from coast to coast.

READ MORE

Stellantis and the federal and Ontario governments have reached an agreement that will see construction of the Windsor EV battery plant resume, preserving current and future jobs in Canada's auto manufacturing sector.

READ MORE

Unifor is sending solidarity and empathy to the University of Waterloo community following last week's stabbing on campus.

Talks that began earlier this year between the Nova Scotia Council of Nursing Unions (Unifor, NSNU, NSGEU and CUPE) and employers (Nova Scotia Health and the IWK) came to a halt last week, without reaching a final agreement.

READ MORE

The president of Unifor Local 551, Amanda Servais, told the Canadian International Trade Tribunal this week, that importing Korean line-pipe products will have a detrimental effect on Canadian jobs.

READ MORE

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Unifor Local 2002 is pleased to announce that its Ornge paramedic services members have ratified a new collective agreement by 83.9%.

READ MORE

On June 28, the Unifor Local 100 Bargaining Committee reached a tentative agreement with the Hudson Bay Railway to renew the Collective Agreement that expired on Dec. 31, 2022.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 522 members working for Canadian Aviation Electronics Ltd. in Montreal, Que. ratified their tentative agreement.

READ MORE

Unifor welcomes new members who work for the Corporation of the Municipality of Calvin, Ont., near North Bay.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

As Unifor prepares for its 10-year anniversary, celebrating Canadian Council this August, we encourage local

RESOURCES

Visit Unifor's new Auto Talks website for the latest news, updates, resources, and videos related to upcoming unions to submit resolutions to bring before delegates at the council. The deadline is fast approaching on July 19.

READ MORE

negotiations with Detroit Three automakers.

READ MORE

Unifor

115 Gordon Baker Road, Toronto ON M2H 0A8

Toll-free: 1-800-268-5763 | communications@unifor.org