

Unifor submits recommendations to the federal government's electric vehicle industry consultation. Order your Unifor Labour Day 2024 T-shirts to show your union pride. Celebrate Indigenous resilience on World Indigenous Day, August 9. National President Lana Payne and Western Regional Director Gavin McGarrigle tour Alberta workplaces. Labour Market Insights reviews Canada's job market from a trade union perspective. Unifor urges sustainable funding for BC public transit. Ontario Action Centre teams share best practices. Hotel workers in Vancouver vote for strike action. New contract gains for Woodstock Hospital workers.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

The latest Unifor Labour Market Insights takes a closer look at how Canada's job market is doing from a trade union perspective.

READ MORE

Place your order for a newly designed Unifor shirt by August 16 to receive them in time for Labour Day 2024. Show your union pride at events and parades across the country.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

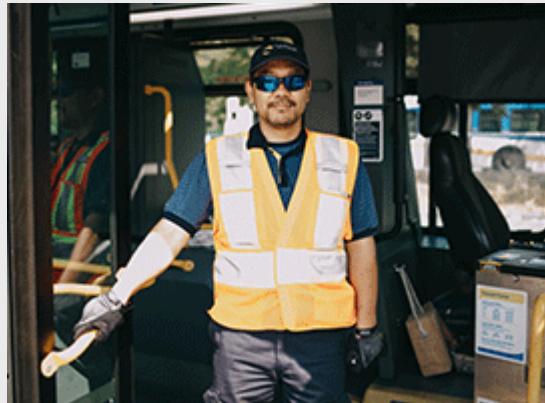

Unifor is participating in the federal government's consultation to protect Canadian workers and electric vehicle supply chains from unfair Chinese trade practices.

READ MORE

National President Lana Payne and Western Regional Director Gavin McGarrigle tour saw, pulp, and paper mills in Alberta and connect with members about issues impacting their communities.

Unifor calls on all levels of government to collaborate and ensure sustainable funding for BC public transit, emphasizing its crucial role in urban development and protecting union jobs.

READ MORE

READ MORE

Celebrating the resilience and strength of Indigenous communities on International Day of the World's Indigenous Peoples, August 9.

READ MORE

Unifor Ontario Action Centre teams met in Toronto to share best practices on labour adjustment and how to assist our members when they are faced with mass layoffs and workplace closures

READ MORE

Canada, the U.S. and Mexico are two years away from a CUSMA review. Unifor teamed up with the CCPA to develop worker- and climate-focused options to strengthen North American cooperation.

READ MORE

Read the letter Lana Payne sent to Minister Virani requesting funding for the Pay Equity Commission so they can hold employers accountable to the Pay Equity Act.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Residence Inn Vancouver hotel workers vote 100% in favour of strike action for fair wages and better working conditions.

READ MORE

New contract secures significant gains for Unifor Local 334 health care workers at Woodstock, Ont. Hospital.

READ MORE

Unifor

115 Gordon Baker Road, Toronto ON M2H 0A8

Toll-free: 1-800-268-5763 | communications@unifor.org