

December 6, 2024

Trump's reckless tariff threats, Quebec Council, Black Friday action against Amazon, strike vote at CN, the International Day of Persons with Disabilities, the National Day of Remembrance and Action on Violence Against Women, Nova Scotia post-election mobilization, workers at INEOS demand government action, and more.

WHAT'S HOT

Watch National President Lana Payne's message on trade and the Trump tariff

TAKE ACTION

Unifor is encouraging members to take part in a social media action on Friday, threat in her address to Quebec Council delegates.

WATCH VIDEO

November 29 to raise the profile of Amazon's poor treatment of workers.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

The 21st Quebec Council emphasized solidarity, action, and a vision for the future.

READ MORE

Workers at INEOS in Sarnia, the iconic industrial site featured on the old $10 bill,

CN workers vote overwhelmingly in favour of strike action.

READ MORE

December 3 marks the International Day of Persons with Disabilities—a day to amplify inclusion, leadership and equity for workers with disabilities.

READ MORE

demand the company and governments work together to find new investors to keep the facility open.

READ MORE

Unifor launches Ontario intimate partner violence campaign at Windsor symposium.

READ MORE

INTIMATE PARTNER VIOLENCE IS AN EPIDEMIC.

Read Unifor's statement for the National Day of Remembrance and Action on Violence Against Women.

Unifor will continue to work to strengthen workers' rights after PCs secure second majority government in Nova Scotia.

READ MORE

Too often, workers injured or made ill due to their work are denied WSIB benefits. Stand with us on Dec. 9 in Thunder Bay, Toronto and Windsor to demand better support for workers.

READ MORE

READ MORE

Unifor members are invited to WinterFest at Canada's Wonderland on Dec 21 or 22. Get your tickets today.

READ MORE

Unifor

115 Gordon Baker Road, Toronto ON M2H 0A8
Toll-free: 1-800-268-5763 | communications@unifor.org