

December 9, 2024

B.C. Council in Whistler, Lana Payne advocates for forestry members at federal trade hearing, rally for injured and ill workers, massive transit funding announcement, western forestry target selection, campaign to declare intimate partner violence an epidemic, paramedics raise the alarm on staffing shortages, new Canada Council highlight video, and more.

WHAT'S HOT

Members gathered in Montreal for the 2024 Canada Council to celebrate organizing, bargaining, and political

TAKE ACTION

Workers are often denied WSIB benefits, but employers are getting a victories while strategizing to defend workers' rights.

WATCH VIDEO

refund in Ontario. Stand with us on Dec. 9 to demand better support for workers.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

More than 200 Unifor leaders and delegates gathered in Whistler for the 2024 B.C. Regional Council to discuss key issues facing B.C.'s workers and make strategic plans for the future.

READ MORE

Lana Payne spoke to the House of Commons Committee on International Trade about the softwood lumber dispute and what new tariffs would mean for Canadian forestry.

READ MORE

“It’s time to wake up to the very dangerous reality this far-right Trump administration presents,” says Lana Payne. Read her Toronto Star oped.

READ MORE

Unifor welcomes $758-million federal government investment in Canadian-made TTC subway cars.

READ MORE

To show support for Best Theratronics workers who have endured a Grinch of a boss this year, Operation Christmas Cheer came by the Kanata picket line this week.

READ MORE

INTIMATE PARTNER VIOLENCE IS AN EPIDEMIC.

Intimate Partner Violence is an epidemic. Tell Ontario MPPs to pass Bill

Unifor and PPWC have selected Kruger as the target to begin pattern forestry bargaining in the Western Region.

READ MORE

173 to ensure the government acts swiftly.

READ MORE

Unifor calls for urgent action to address the paramedic staffing crisis in Ontario.

WATCH VIDEO

Unifor stands in solidarity with Korean trade unions in defence of democracy.

READ MORE

Get the inside scoop on how Walmart workers joined the union. Read the latest edition of Unifor's organizing newsletter.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

The 239 members of Local 414 have ratified a new three-year agreement with their foodservice employer Dexterra at the University of Toronto Mississauga campus.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 101R members will hold strike votes after reaching an impasse in talks with CPKC.

READ MORE

Bell Craft workers ratify collective agreement.

READ MORE

Unifor

115 Gordon Baker Road, Toronto ON M2H 0A8

Toll-free: 1-800-268-5763 | communications@unifor.org