

January 25, 2025

Unifor calls for proactive response as Trump takes office, Alberta's new common front, looming strike action in the Cowichan Valley, B.C. recognizes gender-based violence epidemic, multiple union education opportunities, transit worker international solidarity, new warehousing members, and more.

 WHAT'S HOT

Unions in Alberta have initiated a common front against attacks from the provincial conservative government.

 TAKE ACTION

Sign up for Unifor's Repetitive Strain Injury Awareness Day Webinar to learn how you can report workplace hazards and risks and prevent injury.

READ MORE

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor warns that Canada must act to protect Canadian jobs amid the threat of U.S. tariffs.

READ MORE

B.C. Premier Eby recognized the epidemic of gender-based violence and empowered Minister of Finance to address the crisis.

Unifor members paid their respects at the funeral of a fellow transit worker who was murdered on the job in Seattle.

READ MORE

Workers at White Cap Supply in Winnipeg have joined Unifor, marking another victory in the Warehouse Workers Unite campaign.

READ MORE

On National Day of Remembrance of the Quebec City Mosque Attack and Action Against Islamophobia, Unifor stands in solidarity with Muslim communities.

READ MORE

READ MORE

On January 27, International Holocaust Remembrance Day, we renew our commitment to create a world free from hate and discrimination.

READ MORE

Learn how to become a better ally in Unifor's free, self-paced course that will empower you to challenge bias, discrimination, and support meaningful change.

READ MORE

Members interested in getting involved in politics are invited to register for the Electoral Candidate Development course, part of Unifor's Paid Education Leave program.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Unifor members Transdev in Cowichan Valley on Vancouver Island have filed strike notice after talks broke down with the company.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 1285 members at F&P Manufacturing ratified their first collective agreement, securing wage increases and better working conditions.

READ MORE

Agropur dairy producers in Nova Scotia have ratified new five-year contract.

READ MORE