

Protecting jobs and saving public services key issues in Ontario election, celebrate Black History Month with Unifor, local representatives discuss tariffs and the economy with Unifor leadership, transit workers in Cowichan valley begin uniform ban, DHL bargaining, strategy development in the dairy sector, and more.

WHAT'S HOT

Unifor proudly celebrates Black History Month, honouring Black workers' contributions and continuing the fight for racial justice.

TAKE ACTION

Unifor's Paid Education Leave program brings members together to learn, connect, and grow as union leaders.

READ MORE

APPLY TODAY

IN THE NEWS

Unifor calls on Ontario election candidates to protect workers and public services.

WATCH VIDEO

Unifor leadership discussed tariffs and the union's approach to protect jobs during a virtual meeting with local presidents.

Unifor members at Transdev in the Cowichan Valley will not wear their uniforms until the company comes to the table with a fair deal.

READ MORE

The first cohort of Unifor members graduate from St. Clair College's EV battery manufacturing certificate program.

READ MORE

READ MORE

Dairy processing workers met to discuss bargaining priorities, tariff impacts, and protecting union jobs.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Unifor's DHL bargaining committee provides an update on national negotiations last week with DHL Express Canada.

READ MORE