

March 9, 2025

We must fight and we must build says Unifor as Trump launches tariffs on Canadian goods, new Unifor website will coordinate the tariff fightback, International Women's Day, Health Care Workers Week, Glacier Media closures in B.C., Alberta provincial budget fails workers, Black History Month event in Metro Vancouver, Local 222 celebrates IWD, and more.

WHAT'S HOT

International Women's Day is March 8. March, rally, organize, and rise

TAKE ACTION

Health care workers: Share what you love about your job and be part of Unifor's Health Care Worker Week!

together—for justice, for equity, and for all women and girls.

READ MORE

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

The imposition of unjust tariffs on Canadian goods by U.S. President Donald Trump is an economic call-to-arms for Canada.

READ MORE

The month-long tariff delay for the Detroit Three automakers is the latest extortion tactic by President Trump.

READ MORE

A new U.S. investigation into wood imports is a direct threat to Canadian softwood lumber and downstream wood products.

READ MORE

Unifor vows to fight for stronger worker protections after the Ontario PCs secure a third majority government.

READ MORE

Glacier Media's closure of multiple digital community newspaper will contribute to the "news deserts" in Metro Vancouver.

READ MORE

The Alberta government's 2025 budget delivers tax cuts while shifting costs onto workers.

Unifor members in Metro Vancouver celebrated Black History Month with solidarity, guest speakers, and steel drum music.

READ MORE

VIEW PHOTOS

Unifor Local 222 celebrated the strength of women in the union at annual IWD celebration.

VIEW PHOTOS

BARGAINING UPDATES

Unifor has filed for a mediator in hopes negotiating a fair deal for striking Cowichan Valley transit workers.

READ MORE

Unifor continues to push back against VIA Rail privatization agenda.

READ MORE

Unifor

115 Gordon Baker Road, Toronto ON M2H 0A8
Toll-free: 1-800-268-5763 | communications@unifor.org