

May 19, 2025

Prairie Regional Council in review; life-saving heroics at Local 698; Paramedic Services Week; Aviation, Media, and Rail Councils respond to U.S. tariffs; Personal Support Workers Day; a forestry coalition in Quebec fights back against failed reform; concerns raised about new Bell technology in the workplace; International Day Against Homophobia, Transphobia, and Biphobia; Unifor raises concerns over sale of B.C. energy infrastructure; Arbutus Club strike ends; and bargaining heats up at VIA Rail and DHL.

Local 698 members perform heroic acts to save the life of their co-worker at TW Distribution.

READ MORE

Join hundreds of fellow Unifor members at Canada's Wonderland for member appreciation day.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Prairie Council unites members in fightback against attacks on Canadian sovereignty.

READ MORE

During Paramedic Services Week Unifor celebrates the courage and commitment of paramedics who care without hesitation.

READ MORE

Unifor honours the compassion and strength of personal support workers and continuing care assistants who are essential to quality care.

READ MORE

Read how Unifor's Aviation Council is responding to Donald Trump's trade war and its impact on the Canadian aviation industry.

READ MORE

Unifor denounces a failed reform and calls for a fair, sustainable, and inclusive forestry regime in Quebec.

READ MORE

Unifor expects engagement from Bell Canada about how new automation technology will impact the workplace.

Unifor calls for unity and solidarity on International Day Against Homophobia, Transphobia, and Biphobia.

READ MORE

Unifor is raising concerns about the sale of one of B.C.'s last remaining oil refineries to American energy giant Sunoco.

READ MORE

READ MORE

Trump's threats risk tens of thousands of jobs in the media sector, along with billions of dollars of economic output and tax revenues.

READ MORE

Unifor's response to Trump's trade threats is clear: protect, enhance and invest in Canada's rail infrastructure now.

READ MORE

Honda stalls EV investment in Canada, as chaos from U.S. tariffs spreads throughout the auto industry.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Unifor moves toward strike votes at VIA Rail after the employer refuses to back down from major concessions.

READ MORE

Unifor members at DHL Express Canada locations across the country have voted 97% in favour of strike action.

READ MORE

Wage and benefit increases are highlights of an agreement ratified by Local 3000 members, ending the strike at the Arbutus Club.

READ MORE

Unifor

115 Gordon Baker Road, Toronto ON M2H 0A8

Toll-free: 1-800-268-5763 | communications@unifor.org