

June 29, 2025

Unifor Auto Industry Council remains united in face of tariff crisis, learn how to mitigate heat stress, sign up for Toronto Pride, DHL tentative agreement, National Indigenous Peoples Day powwow, ITF Safe Rates campaign update, and members at the Nuance Group achieve a first collective agreement.

WHAT'S HOT

With soaring temperatures across the country, workers should know the signs of heat stress and how to prevent it.

TAKE ACTION

Members, activists, and allies are invited to join Unifor at the Toronto Pride Parade on Sunday, June 29.

READ MORE

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor's Auto Industry Council met to call for urgent federal action to defend Canada's auto sector and protect good union jobs.

READ MORE

Unifor members at DHL Express Canada have reached a tentative agreement after

Unifor proudly joined members and community partners at the Na-Me-Res more than two weeks being locked out and on picket lines across the country.

READ MORE

Solidarity actions for the ITF's Safe Rates campaign took place June 19–25 at picket lines of DHL facilities across Canada.

VIEW PHOTOS

powwow to celebrate National Indigenous Peoples Day.

READ MORE

Unifor members came out to support the DHL picket line in Dartmouth, N.S., showing how strong we are when we stand together.

VIEW PHOTOS

BARGAINING UPDATES

Full-time workers at Nuance Group duty-free at Pearson airport in Toronto have ratified their first contract.

READ MORE

Unifor