

August 9, 2025

Unifor sponsors and marches in the Caribbean Carnival in Toronto, Unifor's BIWOC conference, Amazon gets slammed by BCLRB, YVR Pride, significant development for forestry industry, Poirier and Hashi tour Grand River Transit, Cape Breton Pride is coming, Social Justice Fund Annual Report, and members at Rio Tinto in Kitimat ratify a new contract.

Amazon has failed to overturn a labour board ruling and suffered a scathing

Register before August 22 for the BIWOC conference "Rooted in indictment about its conduct during the Unifor unionization drive at a B.C. facility.

READ MORE

Resistance: Healing, Justice and Solidarity".

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor proudly sponsored Toronto's Caribbean Carnival, donating $20,000 and collaborating with Sunlime Canada on floats and Canadian-made costumes.

READ MORE

Unifor activists marched with a message of safety and inclusion for Trans refugees during Vancouver's Pride parade on August 3.

VIEW PHOTOS

Len Poirier and Samia Hashi toured Grand River Transit where Unifor Local 4304 members keep Kitchener moving.

READ MORE

Unifor welcomes the federal government's new measures to support Canada's softwood lumber industry.

READ MORE

Unifor members in Cape Breton are invited to march in the Pride Parade in Sydney on August 9.

READ MORE

The Social Justice Fund Annual Report highlights Unifor's support for 315 organizations in 30+ countries, advancing workers' rights, education, and social justice worldwide.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Wages, improvements to benefits, and pension adjustments are the highlights of a new contract ratified by Unifor Local 2301 members.

READ MORE