

August 23, 2025

Unifor members support CUPE struggle at Air Canada, Windsor Salt tour, BIWOC conference, federal budget consultations, auto tariffs webinar, Unifor members at Alstrom celebrate new work, biofuels production win in Ontario, Unifor's NFL pool, a new contract at Orano, and Unifor members reject weak Toromont offer.

WHAT'S HOT

Atlantic Regional Director Jennifer Murray ventured 830 feet below ground to explore Local 823's workplace, the Windsor Salt mine in Pugwash N.S.

TAKE ACTION

Register before August 22 for the BIWOC conference "Rooted in Resistance: Healing, Justice and Solidarity".

READ MORE

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

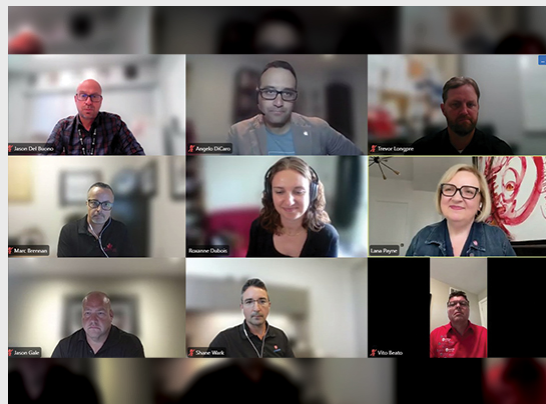

Unifor joined thousands of CUPE Flight Attendants on their picket lines to demand an end to unpaid work at Air Canada.

VIEW PHOTOS

During the federal budget consultation process, Unifor is demanding bold

Canadian auto workers are fighting sweeping U.S. tariffs that threaten tens action from the Government of Canada to build a resilient economy.

READ MORE

Unifor welcomes news that Toronto Transit Commission subway trains will be manufactured at the Alstom plant in Thunder Bay.

READ MORE

of thousands of jobs and billions in manufacturing investment.

READ MORE

The provincial government's move to increase Ontario-made content in biodiesel could rejuvenate the domestic industry and secure Canadian jobs.

READ MORE

Unifor denounces the federal government's assault on CUPE flight attendants' right to strike and on free collective bargaining.

It's game time—Unifor's 2025 NFL Football Pool is officially open for members, retirees, and their families!

READ MORE

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Wage increases and a Skilled Trades adjustment are two highlights of a new collective agreement ratified by members of Unifor Local 48-S at the Orano uranium mine.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 112 members at Toromont Industries in Bradford, Ont. rejected an Ontario Labour Relations Board directed vote by 87%.

READ MORE

Unifor

115 Gordon Baker Road, Toronto ON M2H 0A8
Toll-free: 1-800-268-5763 | communications@unifor.org