

unILINK

November 22, 2025

Locked out Titan Tool & Die workers take the streets of Windsor, Lana Payne visits Hitachi plant, National Skilled Trades Collective Bargaining & New Technology Conference, EMS staffing levels at critical levels in Thunder Bay, long-term care bargaining set to begin in N.S., Arbec mill closure sets off alarms in Quebec, National Day of Remembrance and Action on Violence Against Women, Sheraton Guildford strike ends with new contract, World Toilet Day, $10-a-day child care fight, and workers at Norfolk hospital demand a fair deal.

WHAT'S HOT

Lana Payne visited the Hitachi plant in Guelph, Ont. to meet members of Local

TAKE ACTION

Register now for the National Skilled Trades Collective Bargaining & New 1917 who manufacture heavy trucks for construction and mining industries.

VIEW PHOTOS

Technology Conference, taking place February 10-12 in Toronto.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Locked-out Titan Tool & Die workers marked 100 days on the picket line with a Windsor-wide vehicle caravan.

READ MORE

Unifor calls on the City of Thunder Bay to deliver a fair deal for Superior North EMS paramedics as staffing reaches crisis levels.

READ MORE

After Unifor members rallied and wrote to MLAs, the N.S. government finally delivered a financial mandate so long-term care bargaining can begin.

READ MORE

Suspension of operations at the Arbec mill in Amos, QC has reignited urgent calls for a forest industry strategy.

READ MORE

Statement for the National Day of Remembrance and Action on Violence Against Women.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 3000 members at the Sheraton Guildford in Surrey have ratified a new contract, ending a 136-day strike.

Jennifer Murray highlights why Unifor joined the call to ensure every worker has access to a safe, clean, and inclusive washroom.

READ MORE

Unifor pushes Ontario to keep $10-a-day child care promise.

READ MORE

Unifor urges the NGH Board to act as hospital workers push for a fair deal.

READ MORE

READ MORE

Unifor locals looking to add some laughs to their holiday parties can now hire professional comedians who are part of their union community.

READ MORE