

December 20, 2025

Locked out Titan Tool & Die workers stay positive during holidays, Black Excellence in Leadership Award nominations, Unifor leadership's holiday message, mourning the loss of a Local 892 member killed on the job, National Ribbon Skirt Day, Northern Pulp demand pension fairness, Kent Homes tour, International Migrants Day, Labour Market Insights, and a new collective agreement for Locals 401, 410, 506, 2289.

WHAT'S HOT

Locked out Unifor members at Titan Tool & Die won't let the Grinch owners dampen solidarity and holiday cheer.

TAKE ACTION

Nominate a Black leader by Dec 24 for Unifor's first Black Excellence in Leadership Award.

READ MORE

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor will enter 2026 ready to defend workers, our rights and our jobs. Read the year-end message from leadership.

READ MORE

January 4 is National Ribbon Skirt Day in Canada. Members who identify as Indigenous are encouraged to share photos of their ribbon skirts on social media.

READ MORE

Unifor demands justice after a member of Local 892 was killed in the Mosaic K3 potash mine near Esterhazy, Saskatchewan on Monday.

READ MORE

Unifor members at the now-shuttered Northern Pulp mill in Pictou, N.S., will see their pension fund made whole as the company secures a buyer.

READ MORE

Unifor leaders tour Kent Homes in New Brunswick, where Unifor members are making affordable homes of the future.

READ MORE

On International Migrants Day, Unifor recognizes and celebrates the invaluable contributions of migrants across Canada and around the world.

READ MORE

 BARGAINING UPDATES

Unifor's Atlantic Communications Locals, 401, 410, 506, and 2289, have ratified a new collective agreement with Bell.

READ MORE

Unifor

115 Gordon Baker Road, Toronto ON M2H 0A8

Toll-free: 1-800-268-5763 | communications@unifor.org