

March 15, 2026

Celebrating International Women's Day, arbitration win for workers at CN, Health & Safety conference, calls for justice at Irving Shipyard, long term care cuts in Nova Scotia, defending media jobs and journalism, new contracts in Dryden-Sioux Lookout, and bargaining opens for Northern Ontario hospital workers.

WHAT'S HOT

Unifor arbitration win sees CN ordered to reinvest in Transcona, restore work and create new jobs.

TAKE ACTION

Don't miss Unifor's Health and Safety Conference: Root Cause, Real Change, taking place April 10–12.

READ MORE

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

This International Women's Day, Unifor sisters and siblings showed up from coast to coast to stand together for gender justice.

VIEW PHOTOS

Unifor calls for full enforcement of charges in Irving shipyard workplace death.

Unifor is demanding the Nova Scotia government reverse budget cuts it made to long term care jobs in the province.

READ MORE

READ MORE

Unifor Media Director Randy Kitt urged stronger protections for journalism and media workers at a House of Commons committee.

WATCH VIDEO

BARGAINING UPDATES

Unifor members at Community Living Dryden–Sioux Lookout ratified new agreements delivering on wages, benefits and a new pension plan.

READ MORE

Unifor begins bargaining for 2,000 Northern Ontario hospital workers, focusing on respect for frontline care.

READ MORE

Unifor

115 Gordon Baker Road, Toronto ON M2H 0A8

Toll-free: 1-800-268-5763 | communications@unifor.org