

August 7, 2021

De Havilland members are on strike over job security, tell politicians you want universal child care, Bombardier reaches deal, Unifor launches election ad, United Nations' International Day of the World's Indigenous Peoples, election in Nova Scotia, Shell lockout ends in Quebec, talks resume with Toronto Terminals Railway, support for Kitimat strikers, download the new Recovery-Based Bargaining Program.

 WHAT'S HOT

Watch Unifor's new federal election TV ad. Meet the 2021 O'Toole. New Name. Same old Conservative.

 TAKE ACTION

Universal, affordable, high quality child care is finally within reach thanks to a new federal plan, but Ontario's Conservatives have not signed onto the federal plan. Tell your local MPP, Premier Doug Ford and Ontario Education Minister Stephen Lecce that Ontario needs universal child care.

WATCH VIDEO

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor Local 112 and 673 members are on a picket line to defend good aerospace jobs and secure their future as the strike against De Havilland Aircraft owner Longview Aviation enters its second week.

READ MORE

Bombardier Aviation members ratified a new three-year collective agreement that addresses key worker issues including pensions and job security protections against out-sourcing, bringing a five-day strike to an end.

READ MORE

Unifor launches TV ad cautioning Canadians against voting for Erin O'Toole. The Conservative leader supports the same old policies that will make life harder for every Canadian worker.

READ MORE

Read Unifor's statement for the upcoming United Nations' International Day of the World's Indigenous Peoples.

READ MORE

Members take action to get the vote out in the Nova Scotia provincial election with door-to-door canvassing and a text blitz to support worker-friendly policies and candidates.

READ MORE

The lockout of Unifor Local 121 members in Quebec ends as the union reached a deal with Shell, and the union's boycott of Shell products in Quebec also comes to an end.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Unifor opened negotiations with Toronto Terminals Railway last week. The Union is looking to secure the same pattern of wage and benefit improvements as negotiated with CN Railway.

READ MORE

See the photos of the local businesses and organizations supporting striking members of Unifor Local 2301 at Rio Tinto in Kitimat.

READ MORE

 IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

 RESOURCES

Unifor is launching its campaign to bring universal child care to Ontario. Five provinces and territories have already signed on. It's time Ontario steps up. Share our digital ad on your social channels.

READ MORE

Job security, racial justice, health and safety supports are just some of the priorities in Unifor's ambitious national 'Recovery-Based Bargaining Program' for staff and local bargaining committees to consider in upcoming negotiations. Download the program and learn more.

READ MORE

Unifor

115 Gordon Baker Road, Toronto ON M2H 0A8
Toll-free: 1-800-268-5763 | communications@unifor.org